3. Skatetown Ice is testing out a new idea for a teambuilding event and they could use some help from WCCC. They're interested in doing SKILLET CURLING and need up to 24 people THIS FRIDAY from 5:30pm to 6:30pm at the outdoor rink. You could do skillet curling and then head right over to The BonnLair if you wanted to keep your calendar full! Let me know by Thursday afternoon (that's tomorrow) if you are interested in attending so that they can buy enough skillets. Here's what skillet curling looks like: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=KW66B-nWnQ>

7. Congrats to Junior Feldman whose California MoPac team qualified for the U18 Nationals to be held in Wausau in March. Junior is vice on a team of boys from all over California: Nelson Rogers from SFBACC, Zach Gabrielson from SVCC, and Bernhardt Adler from Hollywood. They are coached by TC Altus from SVCC. The playdowns for this event were held up the mountain at the new dedicated curling club facility in Lake Tahoe this past week. They defeated a Portland team in a best of 3 to move on to the big event.
