

1.  JUST ADDED  A Saturday night Learn-To-Curl. We're experiencing quite the boom of people wanting to learn how to curl and are close to booked out through May. So we added a Saturday night class to get more curlers! This class on March 14th from 5:45-8:30 can hold up to 40 people so tell all your family, friends, and coworkers! Pre-registration is required: <http://winecountrycurlingclub.com/learn-to-curl/>
2. If you're able to help out with teaching this new Saturday night class or any of our Sunday/Tuesday classes, please sign up here: <https://www.signupgenius.com/go/20f0a4badad2aa3f94-learntocurl> There's also the possibility we are adding a CORPORATE EVENT on February 27th but it's not 100% yet. We'll let you know if it gets added to the schedule.
3. Registration for The Barrel Bonspiel is still open. We're at 22 teams but we'd like to be at 28 or 32. Are you on team and you just haven't registered yet? Get on it! Are you looking to be on a team but can't figure out who to curl with? Let us help you! You don't want to miss out on our home club's bonspiel! Bonspiels are the best part of curling! All the info here: <http://winecountrycurlingclub.com/barrel-2020/>
4. The 2020 National Championships starts this weekend in Spokane! See all our favorite USA curlers (8 women's teams and 10 men's teams). USA Curling is proud to partner once again with TESN to bring live coverage to curling fans. They will also partner with CurlingZone for live scores and stats throughout the championship. Here's the streaming schedule: <https://www.teamusa.org/USA-Curling/webstream>
5. Curling Night in America has this Friday night off so rest up. It will be back on NBCSN on February 14th. And then we have a WATCH PARTY at The BonnLair on February 21st from 6:00pm to 11:30pm. It's a double header so there will be lots of curling to watch and plenty of beer to go along with it! Join us!
6. After the WATCH PARTY, come work the CURLING BOOTH at the Evolution Sports Expo on Saturday February 22nd at Cal Expo. Sign up here and then get a free ticket to the event. When we're not curling, we're promoting the sport, amiright? <https://www.signupgenius.com/go/20f0a4badad2aa3f94-wccc1>
7. Upcoming bonspiels that you should consider going to: Silicon Valley Bonspiel in Fremont (registration opens 2/14 at <https://siliconvalleycurling.com/bonspiel/>), California Curling Champs in Fresno (registration currently open for returning teams, other registrations open 2/14), All American Women's Spiel in Tempe (sign up as an individual and get added to a random team which you'll play with all weekend long, a great networking event, <http://coyotescurling.com/all-american/>), Hive Bonspiel in Salt Lake City (<https://docs.google.com/forms/d/e/1FAIpQLSfY8J0loAMU9RDn3Kbk0Jz6-gtluhDh1H1Hq9qEh0qCuvRyZg/viewform>), Surf City Spiel in Irvine (registration opens soon at <https://surfcityspiel.com/>), Rocky Mountain Bonspiel in Ogden, UT (<http://ogden-curling-club.com/22nd-annual-rocky-mountain-bonspiel/>)
8. Need to catch up previous newsletters? Did you know that we archive them? Find them here: <http://winecountrycurlingclub.com/newsletter/>
9. Attached are the latest newsletters from the clubs closest to us: LTEC, SFBACC, and SVCC. Get yourself subscribed so you get the news from these clubs before everyone else!
10. And finally, good curling to David Markowski, Bob Kuhl, Bob Seyfried, and Rob Shelton who are curling in this weekend's 70th Annual Wausau Men's Bonspiel.
11. Oh wait! One more thing February is considered to be Ice Maker Appreciation Month. Next time you see our hardworking ICE CREW give them a high five and maybe a beer! This includes our own club members (those with the pebbles and nippers and mops like Brian, Camren, Ryan, Marko, Steve, Bryan, Billy, Tony) but also the Zamboni drivers (Ebory, Cregan, Eve) and the Skatetown maintenance staff (Keith, Darren, Jeff).
